

David R. Wyndhamsmith, D.D.S., M.D. - Implants, I.V. & General Sedation, Reconstructive Dentistry

Dr. Wyndhamsmith is a third generation Californian. Born in Santa Monica, he received his Bachelor of Science Degree from U.C.L.A. He received his dental degree from the University of the Pacific Dental School in 1979. After practicing dentistry for several years, he made the decision to return to school and began his medical education at the University of Southern California Keck School of Medicine, graduating in 1990. Dr. Wyndhamsmith completed his internship at Huntington Memorial Hospital and did his residency in Anesthesiology at Los Angeles County U.S.C. Medical Center. He became Board Certified in Anesthesiology in 1994. Dr. Wyndhamsmith is on the staffs of both Glendale Adventist Hospital and Provident St. Joseph Hospital in Burbank. Dr. Wyndhamsmith divides his time between his dental practices and hospital anesthesia duties. He is also certified in the placement of dental implants. Dr. Wyndhamsmith provides I.V. as well as General Sedation for pediatric patients, geriatric patients, medically compromised as well as phobic patients.

Dr. Wyndhamsmith resides in Pasadena with his wife and college age son. He was very active in Boy Scouts as an Assistant Troop Leader and accompanied his son on a 12 day backpacking trip through the New Mexico wilderness as part of his son's Eagle Scout preparation. He enjoys traveling, skiing and going to Laker games.

