

Martin Writer, D.D.S. - Orthodontics

Dr. Writer received his dental degree from U.C.L.A. in 1989. He completed his orthodontic residency at Case Western Reserve University School of Dentistry in 1991. Dr. Writer performs both routine and orthognathic (surgical) orthodontic treatments. He is also a certified Invisilign orthodontist and is one of only four orthodontists in California who perform more Invisilign cases than any other orthodontic practitioner. Dr. Writer treats both adults and children.

Dr. Writer resides in Orange County with his wife and college age son. He has been active in Boy Scouts as a troop leader and enjoys hiking, camping, backpacking and traveling.

